Bright and Light Family Living in a Great Location!

Low maintenance and light filled, this home has a modern floorplan and is well suited to family living. A welcoming, wide hallway leads to a study space that could be an office or potential 4th bedroom. At the front of the home, the huge, carpeted master suite is private and offers a retreat away from the other accommodation and features built in robes and contemporary ensuite. Decorated in a neutral colour scheme with practical tiled flooring, this home features downlights throughout, ducted heating, block out blinds and a split system in the open plan living space. A flexible living area that could be a playroom, family TV room or formal dining space leads through to the kitchen and another large living area. The island bench is topped with stone and the kitchen, with a lovely view to the outdoor space, features a gas top cooker and stainless steel appliances. Two more bedrooms are located off the hallway behind the kitchen, both are carpeted and include built in robes. A family bathroom features a shower and a bath and separate toilet and a large laundry offers plenty of storage and space for family living along with convenient access to the garden. The timber deck offers a generous outdoor living and dining space with an undercover area.
