KEEN VENDOR - AMAZING BUYING HERE !!

Hidden behind a row of magnificent ornamental pears, this 3 bedroom home is appealing for its striking split level design and wonderful coastal views from the upper level. Situated on an elevated block, the property is superbly positioned with shops, schools and sporting facilities all within walking distance. An attractive stone terraced garden catches your eye as you make your way up the driveway to the front porch and the welcoming red front door. The ground level features a sunny, north facing second TV/living room or 4th bedroom and spacious bedroom with BIR. A short flight of stairs leads up to the next level and the generous master bedroom with WIR and ensuite. Enjoy your own private deck with a sliding door allowing access outside to the rear garden. Also on this level is the third bedroom, the European laundry and the main bathroom which offers a shower, bath and vanity with the added bonus of a separate WC/powder room. The upper level beckons and it doesn't disappoint with a huge open plan kitchen/living/dining area, flooded with natural light and panoramic vistas south to the great ocean. Sliding doors open onto a spacious deck area and at the end of the day there will be no better spot to unwind and relax, watch the ships pass through the heads and feel the summer sea breeze. You will love entertaining family and friends.
