Architectural Elegance In Old Torquay

Exceptional from the ground up, this contemporary residence will charm you with its blend of relaxed elegance, craftsmanship and great design. Just metres to the foreshore, its location is popular and in demand.

Downstairs highlights include a spacious open plan living zone with a well-appointed central kitchen and sunny dining area. The separate sitting room, with feature open fire, offers an inviting retreat for all seasons. The dramatic void space floods the entire area with natural light through double height feature windows; creating airy and bright voluminous spaces to relax and entertain in.

The serene d'cor throughout blends peaceful hues with natural stone and timber accents. While the landscaped 1,000sqm (approx.) grounds enhance the building's architectural elements.

Easy connection and access to outdoor living, entertaining and playing is a priority. Bask in the all day sun, or find sheltered shaded spots; all perfect for making the most of your down time. Unwind in the private courtyard or get busy with fun and games on the lar
