Soak in the Calm in Clifton Springs

For as far as the eye can see there is a view from this property, the last home before the water's edge in Clifton Springs called, Beacon House. Whether it be across Port Phillip Bay to the You Yangs, over the top of towering gums or Melbourne's city skyline - the panoramic outlook is like nothing else!

If that is not enough to tempt you, this double-storey residence on a large allotment exudes on trend 1970s charm with cathedral ceilings, split levels, timber trimmings and a sunken lounge.

The second level presents as a self-contained unit with a kitchenette, recently renovated bathroom, living and meals area, fourth bedroom and walk-in dressing robe. As well as an enclosed balcony that functions as a sunroom. Here is an opportunity to tap into holiday ma
