Ticket To Quintessential Jan Juc

Have you been dreaming of a home that captures the very essence of the quintessential Jan Juc beach house? Where simplicity, old school character and serious potential come together in a neat and tidy package?

This home delivers all of this plus an enviable location and a generous allotment too.

Beautifully maintained and recently refreshed, features of this property include open plan living with a kitchen and meals area; three good sized bedrooms; a large laundry and bathroom. There is plenty of early 80s charm to be found and there is also the promise of uncovering the original solid timber floors too.

Love this property just as it is and you will enjoy making the most of everything that the Surf Coast has to offer. Or for anyone looking to create a contemporary coastal retreat,
