Peaceful, Private And Practically On The Beach

Surrounded by the sounds of nature - crashing waves in one direction, Begola wetland frogs and birds in the other - this peaceful, renovated gem is a delightful retreat neatly nestled at the end of a private court. With easy walkability to nearby beach access, you'll be out the door and standing on the sand in moments and it's just a few minutes' drive to central shops, schools and amenities.

Outside, landscaping is exceptionally tidy, with designated areas for play, relaxation and entertainment, and a couple of garden sheds to stow away the bikes and surfboards. Established greenery ensures absolute privacy, and a magnificent eucalypt takes centre stage. A sneaky, concealed back exit creates a handy shortcut through to Collendina Reserve, and makes light work of heading to the Cheeky Cow cafe to grab your morning coffee on the way to
